Houston, TX 77084

Dear Dr. Hodges:

I am writing to offer my heartfelt congratulations on being honored with the Diamond Leadership Award by the West Houston Leadership Institute. This award is well deserved, as it recognizes the time and effort you have given to the West Houston Area and the field of education.

The leadership and commitment you have contributed to the growth of education in the area and at the community college level is to be commended. I know your family and the people of Houston are proud of your accomplishment and I join them in commending you for your service. It is an honor to have dedicated leaders such as you making such an impact in the Tenth Congressional District of Texas.

As a member of the United States House of Representatives, I congratulate you on this honor and I am proud to continue to serve as your Congressman.

Sincerely,

Michael T. McCaul
Member of Congress
